

Korean Peninsula Map

1. Label the following countries then color each a different color:
 - a. North Korea
 - b. South Korea
 - c. China
 - d. Russia
2. Draw a Star and label the capital cities of North Korea and South Korea.
3. Draw in and label the following rivers (use Blue)–
 - a. Han River
 - b. Taedong River
 - c. Tumen River
 - d. Yalu River
4. Label the following bodies of water:
 - a. Yellow Sea
 - b. Korean Strait
 - c. Sea of Japan
5. Use a red marker to trace over and label the DMZ (demilitarized zone).

Intro to North and South Korea

Name: _____ Period: _____

Geography:

1. Use page 593. On what type of landform are North and South Korea located? _____
2. Complete the following chart based on the pages provided:

	North Korea	South Korea
Capital City (map on p. 591)
Major Rivers (map on p. 593)
Climate Type (map on p. 462)
Land Use (map on p. 463)
Resources (map on p. 463)

History:

Read the Section entitled "Korea" on page 598 to answer the following

1. What country has heavily influenced the Koreas? _____
2. How did the Soviet Union and the United States impact the government of North and South Korea?
3. The Korean War began when _____ Korea invaded _____ Korea. What was the goal of this invasion?

Culture:

Use pages 600-601 to answer the following

1. What is the main language spoken in both North and South Korea? _____
2. What are the main religions of North and South Korea? _____ and _____
3. What has led to many differences between modern culture in North Korea and South Korea?

The Koreas Today: Use pages 608-611 to complete the chart:

	North Korea	South Korea
Official Name of Country
Government Type
Two facts about the Economy
Two challenges facing the country today

Reuniting the Koreas: Use page 612 to answer the following

1. Why do some Koreans want the two countries to reunite?
2. What issues stand in the way of reunification?

